

Madison County 310 Board

Promoting the general welfare of people with Intellectual Disabilities.

The Madison County 310 Board is a public non-profit organization. The Board works to identify and develop resources to meet the needs of the citizens of Huntsville, Madison City, and Madison County.

Our agency is available to assist eligible individuals with intellectual disabilities and their families in finding and securing the services that best meet their needs.

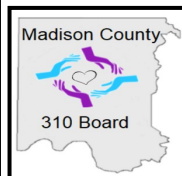

To qualify for services, the individual must have onset of an intellectual disability prior to the age of 18.

Applicants must have a Full Scale I.Q. (FSIQ) of less than 70 to be eligible for waiver services.

To begin the waiting list application process, you must first call the DMH Call Center:
